

MAY WED SAME WOMAN FOR THE FOURTH TIME

William H. Johnson, of Sussex, N. J., Admits He Is Willing To Make It Up.

(New York Herald.)

It looks as if W. H. Johnson, a prominent resident of Sussex, N. J., and Mrs. Laura Hewitt Johnson, are going to be married for the fourth time. In the last twenty-seven years they have been married three times and divorced three times and, according to Mr. Johnson, they are willing to try again.

"I expect Laura here to-morrow or the next day," said Mr. Johnson, "and I reckon the matter will be arranged so that the dominie will get another $2 bill from me. Why, don't you know, it has cost me $6 to marry her three times, but I'm a sport and am good for another $2."

The couple was first married in 1887, and parted the first time in 1892. He got a divorce on a complaint of desertion. In 1898 Mr. Johnson was eating in a Newark restaurant when he saw Mrs. Johnson at another table. They talked for half an hour and then went to the courthouse and were married.

Mrs. Johnson became dissatisfied again in 1913 and left her husband. The following year he obtained another divorce on the desertion charge. He was traveling in Pennsylvania in 1908 when they met again accidentally and were married the same afternoon. That marriage lasted until 1903 when they separated again and there was another divorce.

Mrs. Johnson has been living in Patterson with relatives and recently she and Mr. Johnson have been exchanging letters. The fourth marriage may result.

Terrible Death.

Clarksville, Tenn., Aug. 19.—Edgar Wooten, a young bridge carpenter, met death in a terribly shocking manner some time during last Saturday night or early Sunday morning under the wheels of an L. & N. train. There is no definite information as to just how the tragedy occurred, no one having apparently witnessed it or knows anything as to the movements of the victim prior to its occurrence. His mutilated body was found lying on the track of the L. & N. railroad at a point between the passenger depot and the Dunlap mill.

HORSE BURNED

Mr. Bellamy Loses Fine Animal by Fire.

A valuable horse belonging to Mr. H. P. Bellamy, of South Christian, was burned to death in a stable near Dover, Tenn., last Sunday night. Mr. Bellamy was on a visit to friends in Stewart county when the fire occurred. The building also contained about fifteen tons of hay and this was consumed. Mr. Bellamy had some insurance on his horse.

Cleaning Silver Purse.

Any woman who owns a silver purse, either sterling or german, and who constantly pays the jeweler for cleaning it, in order to save gloves and light dresses, will be very glad to know that common baking soda will clean it in a few minutes.

Just take plenty of soda and a little water, and wash between the hands or with a brush; rinse and dry—and think of the money saved.

In Society

Miss Green Honored.

The Birmingham, Ala., Age-Herald says:

"A number of young people were entertained on Thursday evening at an outing at West Lake, complimentary to Miss Mary Green, who is the guest of Mrs. L. M. Girod. The party was conveyed from Ensley to West Lake in two auto trucks.

Mrs. F. J. Lange entertained at dinner yesterday at her home on Avenue H, in honor of Miss Mary Green, of Hopkinsville, Ky., who is the guest of Mrs. L. M. Girod. The apartments were made attractive by the use of pink roses and ferns, developing a color scheme of pink and white, which was accentuated in the six course dinner which was served at 1 o'clock. The center motif of the table was a huge cluster of Killarney roses and covers were laid for sixteen.

In the afternoon forty-two was played from four tables, the hand painted score cards showing pretty girls' heads in the pink and white tints. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Miss Ethel Hughes."

Youthful Entertainer.

Miss Marjorie Duffer, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. Duffer, gave a party last night which was greatly enjoyed by about twenty of her little friends. Delicious refreshments were served.

Japan's Ultimatum

to Germany.

Tokio, Aug. 19.—Japan has issued the following ultimatum to Germany, which it is generally believed, will be followed by a declaration of war:

"We consider it highly important and necessary in the present situation to take measures to remove the causes of all disturbances of the peace in the Far East and to safeguard the general interests as contemplated by the agreement of alliance between Japan and Great Britain.

"In order to secure a firm and enduring peace in Eastern Asia, the establishment of which is the aim of the said agreement, the imperial Japanese government sincerely believes it to be its duty to give the advice to the imperial German government to carry out the following two propositions.

"First—To withdraw immediately from Japanese and Chinese waters German men-of-war and armed vessels of all kinds and to disarm at once those which cannot be so withdrawn.

"Second—The delivery on a date not later than September 15 to the imperial Japanese authorities, without condition or compensation, the entire leased territory of Kiau-Chau with a view to the eventual restoration of the same to China.

"The imperial Japanese government announces at the same time that in the event of it not receiving by noon on August 23, 1914, an answer from the imperial German government signifying its unconditional acceptance of the above advice offered by the imperial Japanese government, Japan will...

CRY FOR FRANCE ON GIRL'S LIPS

When She Is Executed At Geneva On Accusation Of A Spv.

Geneva, Aug. 18.—Madame Favre Schwarz, of Basel, a young and beautiful Swiss girl, married to one of the richest men in Alsace-Lorraine, was shot Saturday by German soldiers after a court-martial.

She was accused of attempting to blow up an important tunnel on the railway line near Leopoldschall.

Madame Schwarz made no secret of her intense French sympathies. Having been found guilty and sentenced to death she shouted "Vive la France!" and she died with this cry on her lips.

She was well known in the best cosmopolitan society, not only of Basel, but of Berlin.

Switzerland, altho not actually engaged, is suffering the terrors of war. Italy has mobilized more than 200,000 troops on the Swiss and Austrian frontiers. In the high mountain passes above Zermatt the Swiss and Italian patrols meet and fraternize, discussing the war.

THIEF'S TRICK

Dresses a "Dressed Hog" In His Wife's Clothes.

Robert Fites, colored, was arrested Saturday afternoon by Harry Stone, city Marshal of Smith's Grove, charged with stealing a hog. Fites was brought to this city and locked up with Jailor Claypool.

Connected with the arrest of Fites on the above charge is a laughable little story. The stealing of the hog occurred last winter and was some distance from the home of Fites, and he had no way of conveyance, so he stole a mule and buggy from one of his neighbors to haul the hog. He also took along his wife's old dress and bonnet. Arriving at the place he killed the hog and was ready to start home by daylight.

To conceal his "hog" he dressed it up in his wife's old dress and bonnet and set it up in his buggy. Going down the road he met someone who inquired the way to a certain place, and fearing the traveler might discover his trick and to make him think it was his wife, he said: "Sit up, old lady, he will think you are drunk." A short distance down the road the mule got scared and ran away, throwing the "old lady" out. Hence his visit to Jailor Claypool.—Bowling Green News.
